FRED EVANS IS SHOT TO DEATH

Altercation in Craps Game Last Night Resulted in Murder.

Fred Evans is dead, wounded in his head and with a bullet hole through his lower left side as the result of a craps game yesterday afternoon. The shooting occurred at about five o'clock. Land Davis is in jail charged with the murder and his son, Vester Davis, still at large, is wanted on the same charge. The shooting took place in a drunken brawl at Choate's hay barn on the Dixie Robertson land down the government levee.

It is difficult to determine whether the wound in Evans' head is the work of a bullet or whether he was beat in the head with the gun after he was shot down. The wound in the head or two or three inches apart, being in the back part of the head. The shot which entered his side just above the hip joint. It was thought last night, caused his death by severing the left iliac artery. This morning, however, the reports of physicians examining him, seem to indicate that the death was caused through the head wound. Fred Evans' twin brother, Ed Evans, was also shot at, but was not hit, one bullet going through the crown of his hat.

Sheriff Walker, Chief of Police Hamby and Joe Walls were summoned to the scene of the crime. The body of the dead man was brought to the embalming parlors of the St. Louis Funeraling Co., where an examination was made. Only a pair of dice were found on his person. A search was made for the two Davis men, and Land was found about 7 o'clock back of the ball park in West Hickman.

According to reports of the killing, it resulted from the contest of an epidemic which occurred Saturday night in West Hickman, and for which they were arrested. It seems that under influence of alcohol, the quarrel was renewed, and ended in the shooting.

No weapons were found on either of the Evans men, and according to the report of Ed Evans, both Land and Vester Davis were doing the shooting.

As a denouement of Hickman's craps game epidemic, a widow and a child are left to Fred Evans, while in his flight Vester Davis leaves a wife.

INDEPENDENTS CANNOT VOTE

Only Voters Who Registered Can Exercise Franchise in Primary.

With the local primary campaigns already started in practically every county in the state, the fact that the women for the first time will have a voice and a vote in determining who shall hold the offices is lending an added interest to these contests that are in many ways the most absorbing in the political calendar.

A fact not generally known to the women voters is that those living in the cities and towns where registration is required, who for any other reason than illness or absence from the city refrained from registering last fall, will have no vote at the August primary, having by such failure disfranchised themselves, and the same applies to the women who registered as independents. The primary election law provides that only those voters who registered as Democrats or Republicans at the preceding fall registration may participate in the succeeding August primary, unless for the only valid reason that they were prevented by sickness or absence from the city in which they reside.

This does not apply to the women voters living in precincts where registration is not required, who may vote in the primary whether they voted or not in the regular election last November, and such women may even elect whether they will participate in the Democratic or the Republican primary. It is this feature of the situation that is puzzling the party leaders, since the great bulk of the vote in the state is unregistered and not hampered by the registration restrictions.

Another thing that was overlooked by the women who failed to register or vote last fall is that any of them who might desire to become candidates in the primary are barred from running in the August primary, for the reason that such women could not legally qualify as candidates. The law requires that before any person can qualify as a candidate for a nomination in either party an affidavit must be filed showing that at the preceding general election such person voted for all of the candidates of such party, and it is further required that an accompanying affidavit be made by two persons setting out that the statements of the candidates are true. Under this provision of the law only those women who actually voted the straight Democratic or Republican ticket last November can become candidates in the coming primary.

The probability that some women who might desire to enter the primary as candidates will be barred from seeking party preferment, and that many others will be prevented from participating in the party selections of the candidates will work a hardship on the women voters as a class in the first primary in which under the equal suffrage amendment they will be entitled to report.

While it is unfortunate that many of the women who are otherwise qualified in every way will be prevented from seeking nominations or even voting in the primaries, there is an element of justification in the self-imposed deprivation of their rights. Women were granted the franchise such a short time before the last registration and election that many of them did not realize or understand the intricacies of the election laws and the relation of their participation last fall in the succeeding primary.

The effect of the failure of many women to register and vote last fall is not expected to have any appreciable bearing on the two party primaries in so far as the nomination of the party candidates is concerned, since it is figured that such women are about equally divided between the two parties, and while they will have no voice or vote in selecting the nominees, they will, it is believed, line up with the party of their choice in the general election.

CASING ARRIVES AT BONDURANT

Preparations Being Made for Setting at Rittenhouse Oil Well.

The casing for the Rittenhouse oil well at Bondurant arrived at that town yesterday. Preparations are being made for setting it, the hole being cleaned out and prepared for it, and it is probable that the casing will be set tomorrow or Saturday.

Much interest is being manifested in the Rittenhouse well now owing to the fact that the Tennessee State Geologist advised the setting of the casing before drilling was continued, saying that "oil might be expected at any time after the rock, which had already been struck, was pierced."

The food sale which was snoved out last Saturday will be held in the basement of the Christian Church this coming Saturday afternoon.

MAY HAVE ANOTHER FERRY.

The board of directors of the Commercial Club was called together Tuesday afternoon at which time the proposition of starting a municipal ferry on the river was discussed. It seems that the late Dr. Faris bequeathed a tract of land on the Missouri side of the river for the use of the City of Hickman as a ferry landing, and this meeting was called to discuss the advisability of starting a ferry for the city. In this way it was brought out, people from territory across the river and tributary to this city, by the payment of a small nominal fee could be transported to this side to do their trading. A committee, consisting of J. O. West, H. L. Amberg and the Rev. W. F. Renneberg, was appointed to investigate the advisability of such a move.

I. O. O. F. BANQUET.

Fulton Lodge No. 83, I. O. O. F. gave a smoker in their halls last Thursday night to Prof. A. J. Hanziker's band. The hours were from 7:30 to 9:30. Speeches were made by Senator B. T. Davis and Attorney S. D. Stenbridge. The band was highly complimented on the music which they furnished for the occasion.

OTTO HERTWECK BURIED HERE

Died in Cairo and Remains Brought Here for Burial.

The remains of Otto Hertweck, who died last Wednesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jno. R. Ford, of Cairo, were brought to Hickman Tuesday night and were laid to rest Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the City Cemetery. The funeral occurred from the residence of Mrs. Percy Jones, his daughter, a short talk being made by the Rev. E. L. Miley, pastor of the Christian Church. Mr. Hertweck was a devout Catholic, and mass was said over his remains in Cairo Tuesday. The deceased was well known and greatly respected by a host of friends in this city, having lived here for some time and visiting here in the home of his children on numerous occasions.

The many beautiful floral designs which were placed on the grave spoke with silent eloquence of the sorrow of the large number who attended the funeral.

He was survived by seven children, Mrs. D. L. Goldberg, St. Paris, Ohio, and Harry H. Hertweck, Gary, Ind., who were unable to be present at the funeral services. Ben J. Hertweck, Mrs. Percy Jones and Arch Hertweck, of this city, Mrs. Jno. R. Ford, of Cairo, and J. R. Hertweck, of Pine Bluff, Ark.

Mr. Hertweck was born in the Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, March 21, 1836, and had reached the ripe old age of 85 years at the time of his death. An interesting autobiographic sketch is given below, which he wrote about three years before his death.

"In the winter of 1840-2 I visited a little government resort where I witnessed the execution of a man who had killed his wife, who formerly lived in my town. There I saw my first soldiers; they were soldiers of the German Empire. Then in May of 1842 my father immigrated, with his family to this country, by way of Strassburg, France. We visited my mother's brother two days there and saw the great Cathedral of Strassburg where Christ and his twelve Apostles are said to come out every day at twelve o'clock. From there we started through the Government of France, stopped at Watton, Ames, Nansing then to Harvard, stayed two days in Harvard, started on sail vessel to New Orleans, La., U. S. A. and were forty-two days on the ocean. When we arrived in the city of New Orleans I saw my first negro—that was about June 25th, 1842. When we arrived at New Orleans I met a tribe of Indians, taken prisoners at Florida during the Mohawk war. The Government transferred them on the same vessel that we came on to Napoleon, Ark. That was the frontier of Indian Territory then as Arkansas hadn't become a state. Then we made our way to Cairo, Ill., then to Troy, Indiana. I landed at Troy on the seventh day of July. My father then located on a farm in Spencer County, Indiana. In 1849 the first epidemic of cholera occurred in Evansville, Indiana, and St. Louis, Mo. I had the cholera.

"My first venture from home was in 1853 to New Orleans, La. In 1856 I located in Hickman, Ky. I went in business in 1858 and united in marriage to my wife in 1860 in Louisville, Ky. To this union were born nine children, seven of which are still living. In 1878, the year of the great epidemic of yellow fever, I had it, at which time I lost my mother, brother and sister with the fever. On July 24th, 1910, myself and wife celebrated our Golden Wedding Anniversary in California, the City of Fresno. We also visited San Francisco, Sacramento, Los Angeles, St. Pedro, Long Beach, Catalina Islands, Pasadena, Ostrich Farms, and various other towns in the state. On our journey home we visited El Paso and Houston, Texas, New Orleans, La., Vicksburg, Miss., Memphis, Tenn., Cairo, Ill. We left our home in Hickman, Ky., Oct. 1, 1912, and have made our home in Cairo, Ill., since. My wife died January 17th, 1917 at the age of seventy-eight years. We were married fifty-seven years. I am still residing with my daughter, Rilla Ford, and enjoying the best of health and in my eighty-third year."

C. M. & G. IN NEAR WRECK.

Last Wednesday the C. M. & G. night train came near having a serious wreck between Miller and Tyler. A cross tie had been fastened on the track and the engine struck it, knocking the cross tie about ten feet. About ten minutes were consumed in getting the tie off the track. According to Thomas Younger, engineer, a dog belonging to a negro near the place where the cross tie had been placed, was killed by the south bound C. M. & G. and the owners of this dog is suspected by officials who are working on the case.

H. L. Curlin of Woodland Mills tells us that his son, W. H., is back again at St. Thomas Hospital for an operation, but is getting along fine. The young man, it is remembered, was crippled some months ago by a truck. His condition was thought to be beyond control, but the surgeons and hospital corps brought him out of this. The last operation will no doubt restore him to good health, with sound body and limbs.—Union City Commercial.

Still Ahead.

Mrs. T.—was much given to what she proudly termed "illness," but what her neighbors called more "hype"—that is, just a desire to complain and be petted. They told her husband that they felt sure if he would go away and leave her alone for several months without any one to humor her and listen to her complaints, she would simply have to get well.

So away he traveled and stayed two months. He came home and when he saw his wife and how well she looked he was sure that her predictions had been realized. And then came her first sentence: "Just think, John, while you've been gone I have been doctoring with six different doctors, and none of them has been able to find out what is the matter with me."

PULLS TWICE AS MUCH WITH THIS WAGON

Using the law of leverage as the principle upon which he has worked out the problem of heavy hauls, T. H. Briggs, well known English inventor, claims he has in the model shown here, a vehicle which will revolutionize rural transportation. A horse pulling on levers on the first wagon, pulls the second wagon, so geared that it in turn pushes on the first wagon, increasing the pulling power of a horse one-half again. Of course a motor tractor or automobile could be used instead of the horse.

WEALTH OF HARDING'S CABINET

All Are Wealthy, Mellon Leading with $500,000,000.

Members of Congress have come to the realization, following publication by a New York newspaper of the financial interests of Andrew W. Mellon, that President-Elect Harding's cabinet will be composed in large part by millionaires or exceptionally rich men. The cabinet was discussed in the cloak rooms, especially by Democratic members, who have watched with interest Mr. Harding's selections.

The wealth of the various men selected or under consideration was discussed. The totals, which, of course, were guesses that were given of the approximate wealth owned or directly controlled by the men in the cabinet places ran as follows:

Charles Evans Hughes, $500,000.
Andrew W. Mellon, $500,000,000.
John W. Weeks, $5,000,000.
Harry M. Daugherty, $1,000,000.
Will H. Hays, unestimated.
Albert B. Fall, $2,000,000.
Frank O. Lowden, $75,000,000.
Henry C. Wallace, $500,000.
John Hays Hammond, $20,000,000.
Total, $604,000,000.

President Wilson's cabinet, which came up for some discussion, included in the opinion of congressmen, two millionaires, one of whom was appointed late in the last administration. They are Albert Sidney Burleson and John Barton Payne. Most of the members of the Wilson cabinet have been comfortable but not great means.

DON'T GIVE EASTER FLOWERS!

Miss Mary Campbell was the victim of quite an unusual accident Sunday. She had a bunch of carnations, and while admiring their beauty with a bunch of friends she swallowed a stem of one of the flowers several inches in length. In an effort to dislodge it from her throat those with her began to beat her on the back, and, according to her statement she swallowed the stem and the remedy applied came near killing her.—Carlisle County News.

110-POUND WATERMELONS

One hundred and ten pound watermelons! They have 'em in Egypt. Consular reports say so and consuls never err. But they keep 'em all at home.

There is no export business. The consul at Alexandria noted the melons in the market there, "all weighing from ten to 110 pounds and varying in price from 30 cents to $1.50." He also noted that, while they were just "watah millions," they had been given funny names such as "battikh" and "nims" and "yaffawi," and that only two melons grow to the plant.

Clever Deduction.

Sherlock Holmes-like detectives still exist. In London, England, an unknown man was run over by a train taken to the hospital, and although he never recovered consciousness, lived and talked in delirium for a few hours. It was noticed that he counted all the time, and the doctor perceived that he never counted above a certain number. He remembered this, and recalled that the number was that of the nails in a horse's shoe. He decided the man must be a blacksmith, informed the police, and his relatives were found from this little clue.

PLAN THREE GREAT TUNNELS

Burrowing in the Rockies Will Solve America's Great Problems.

And what is this latest product of vision's urge?

Tunnels! The greatest tunnels the world has ever known; 17½ miles of them cut through nature's solid masonry under the Rocky mountains; tunnels that will open up vast resources to supply America's vital industrial needs for generations to come; tunnels that will answer the question: "Will we ever run out of gasoline?" by making available ten times as much as has ever been pumped out of the ground.

These new tunnels will open up enough coal to supply the United States for the next hundred years. Harry C. Drum writes in Leslie's. They will spew forth 10,000,000,000 feet of lumber. They will reach enough sulphate of ammonia to fertilize the entire Mississippi valley. They will provide the only short, year-round, unobstructed military road from coast to coast.

Passenger and freight trains will carry their burdens beneath millions of tons of rocks and in shorter time than it was ever before possible to make the transcontinental trip.

This new cut through the eternal hills will give to America untold quantities of gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, gypsum, asphalt, tungsten, zinc and other precious metals and open up a frontier larger in area than the New England states. The opening up of these tunnels will realize an industrial project second in importance only to the Panama canal. And they will advance the state of Colorado from a position of comparative obscurity to one of the most powerful units of the industrial structure of the country.

The greatest of these, the Moffat, is to pierce the divide on the north; the Monarch, over six miles long, to cut the central ridge, and the San Juan the south.

The Moffat tunnel is to be used by both trains and automobiles; the automobile section to be wide enough to accommodate troops for the largest army transports.

Writing Himself Down an Ass.

Speaking of repartee, says a writer in the London Morning Post, reminds us of one that would be hard to beat. The house of lords was debating an anti-church bill when Atterbury, bishop of Rochester, said: "I prophesied last year that this bill would be introduced this session; I am sorry to find that I have proved a true prophet."

Lord Coningsby then arose and said: "One of the bishops has set himself forth as a prophet; the only prophet I can think of likening him to is Balaam, who was reproved by his own ass."

When the laughter had subsided Atterbury rose, and remarked: "Since the noble lord has discovered such a similitude, I am content to be compared with the prophet Balaam; but, my lords, I am at a loss how to make out the other part of the parallel, for I have been reproved by nobody but the noble lord himself."

Hence the title, Atterbury's ass, changed to Lord Coningsby for many a day.

Cultivate Independence.

It's an easy thing to develop the independence habit. It sets folks to thinking they can do anything they want to. Usually it's the outcome of lax discipline in youth. They are permitted to do as they please and they don't please to do more than they have to. If children are able to wiggle out of things as they wish, they learn to be shifters of responsibility and dodgers of burdens. They get the wrong mental bias and soon imagine they don't have to do anything they don't want to. They talk glibly about what they will do and what they won't do. They may become as obstinate as mules and as out of place in good society as that animal would be in a parlor. Still that does not raise them above the spirit of dependence. Independence is a matter of living without having to lean on others and it takes more than talk to do it.

Since the United States went "dry" British liquor exports have tripled. Canada, the Bahamas and the West Indies are the principal importers.

OWNER OF CENTER OF POPULATION SURPRISED

John Herrin, whose 60-acre farm at Whitehall, Owen county, Ind., has been ascertained to be the center of population of the United States, was mildly surprised when notified of the fact at an auction sale Tuesday.

"Got darn," said Mr. Herrin. The auctioneer put up a pig for sale and Mr. Herrin turned away.

Used Bricks for Shingles.

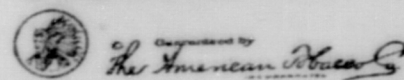

The desire of a house owner to utilize brick in every possible manner led to the adoption of a roof constructed entirely with shingles of this material. The shingles are similar in size and shape to the ordinary variety, with the exception of the thickness, which apparently is in excess of the usual. This is due, no doubt, to the brittleness of the material and the ease with which a thin piece would break. They are made from the usual brick material and are molded to any desired form. Apart from the thickness of the shingles, the roof resembles the ordinary roof.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

And now you appear and the Hushed
Ones are turning their gaze
To see what you do with your chance

GOOD THINGS FOR THE INVALID.

For the invalid only easily digested food should be chosen and it should be prepared in a way which will not detract from its digestibility. Since foods to become assimilated, must be softened and made liquid,
liquid foods will digest with less difficulty and in cases of severe illness are always prescribed by the physician. Broths, gruels, milk, fruit juices and cream soups are included in a liquid diet.

In serving a tray for an invalid one should avoid serving too many things at once. It is a pleasure to have the food served in courses when it can be done without too great a burden to the caretaker. After the meal is over the tray and all food should be removed at once.

Malted Milk Cocoa.—Mix one tablespoonful of malted milk powder with one teaspoonful of cocoa and three-fourths of a cupful of boiling water.
Sweeten to taste, stirring well. Boil three minutes. Serve hot.

Egg Nests.—Toast a circular piece of bread; butter and place on a hot plate. Bend the white of an egg until stiff, heap on the toast and drop the egg unbroken in the center; season with butter, salt and pepper, if used.
Set in a moderate oven until the white

Potato Baked in the Half Shell.—
Bake a good-shaped potato and scoop out the inside. Season well and return to the shell, brush over the top with the beaten white of egg or milk and brown slightly. If cheese can be eaten a sprinkling of grated cheese may be added to the potato for flavor.

Egg Lemonade.—Beat one egg, add two tablespoonfuls of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice and one cupful of cold water. Add the water gradually, stirring until smooth and well mixed. Strain and serve. Eggnog is made in the same way as the lemonade, adding a grating of nutmeg, a bit of vanilla or fruit juice and milk
in place of the lemon and water.

Dam Saves India's Crops.

With the object of saving crops and averting the terrible famines of the region's past history, the construction of huge storage dams in India has been proceeding for years. In the Ahmednagar district of the Deccan, east of Bombay, a masonry dam now being completed at Bhandara reaches the enormous height of 270 feet, and 85 miles of canals will be necessary to utilize the water for irrigating 75,000 acres of Ahmednagar land. At Bargha, farther south, another great dam is being built for watering 125,000 acres in the districts of Poona, Satara and Sholapur. A still larger project is the Nira right-bank canal, now nearly ready, which cost about $20,000,000.—

TEST OUT BROODING SYSTEM

Greatest Loss Is Due to Chilling Received While Being Transferred From Incubator.

Chickens are usually left in the incubator from 24 to 36 hours after hatching, without feeding, before they are removed to the brooder, which should have been in operation for a day or two at the proper temperature for receiving the chicks, say specialists of the United States department of agriculture. A beginner should try his brooding system carefully before he uses it. After placing the chicken in the brooder they can be given feed and water. Subsequent loss in chickens is frequently due to chilling received while taking them from the incubator to the brooder. They should be moved in a covered basket or receptacle in cool or cold weather.

Killing Weeds With Paper.

The apparent success of the Eckart process in cultivating sugar cane has been the subject of much discussion, according to the Tech Engineering News, since experiments on large areas have indicated that the cost of growing the cane can be reduced from 50 to 70 per cent and the crop increased by ten tons an acre, which is equivalent to one ton of raw sugar. After the field has been planted it is covered with a peculiar asphalt paper that will withstand six weeks of weather and that at the same time is soft enough to allow the sharp growing points of the sugar cane to break through. The cane grows more vigorously and the weed seeds sprout at once, but the weeds are quickly blanching and withered by the black covering. The paper is made by cooking pulp for 12 hours with lime under pressure and then after a few days running it out on the paper machine and treating it with asphalt.—Youth's Companion.

Once in a while you come across a man who has saved up enough of his earnings in 1920 to pay off his income tax.

Speaking of bootleg whiskey, one swallow doesn't make a summer, but it frequently sends a man to a warmer climate.

The trouble with the man with the hoe is, he is likely to lay it down for the lure of the city, where he can see the hose.

It costs quite a bit to be elected president of the United States, but look at all the advice you get for nothing.

Ohio is said to be overrun with mad dogs just now. The price of a bone during the past couple of years has been enough to make any dog mad.

WHY THEY FAILED

Hickman business men should be interested in a report sent out by the government showing the percentage of failures and their causes during 1920.

The outstanding feature of the report is that of the entire number of concerns which failed in the United States in a single year, more than 90 per cent of them were establishments that failed to advertise. If there was over an argument in favor of the judicial use of printers' ink the government has presented it in this report.

We presume that in most instances these unsuccessful concerns did not advertise because they were satisfied to drag along. When the period of readjustment came they found that the very feature which had been putting their competitors over the rough places—advertising—had been the one thing which they had ignored. The merchants who used printers' ink got rid of war price stocks at even money or better, and were able to stay on their feet. The fellow who had goods that were declining in value daily and did not realize the value of the newspapers in telling the people that he wanted to get out from under them took his place with the 90 per cent who are now sadder but wiser in the ways of the business world.

If you want the best reason in the world why you should advertise judiciously and sensibly, just sit down and think over Uncle Sam's own figures—that 90 per cent of all the business failures in 1920 were of concerns that did not advertise.

LINE UP FOR WHITE ROCKS.

It is the plan to standardize this County on purebred White Rocks. In other words, we want nothing but purebred White Plymouth Rocks on every farm and to make it a permanent White Rock County. When we have made this County solid with White Rocks we will be able to secure contracts with the big hatcheries for our entire output of setting eggs at a fancy price. This, of course means a good price for eggs when eggs are plentiful. This will make it easier to secure new blood in our flocks. We will have a uniform product and will consequently be able to get more for it, etc.

This plan is not compulsory. In other words we do not intend to force any one to accept white rock chickens or any other breed they may not like. However, the County Agent would greatly appreciate your hearty cooperation in standardization work, particularly as it was started for your benefit. The success of this work will be measured by the way you fall in line.

The Farmers & Merchants Bank of Hickman, and the Farmers Bank of Fulton, will purchase all the eggs that the farmers of Fulton county want on the following proposition. The person who desires the eggs must first sign a bankable note to return one pullet next fall for each setting of eggs received, or its value in cash to the bank. All persons living east of the M. and O. railroad will get their eggs through the Farmers Bank at Fulton. All persons living west of the M. & O. will get their eggs through the Farmers & Merchants Bank at Hickman. Blank forms will be filled out to secure eggs and they can be secured at the Farm Bureau office for all who live west of the M. & O. railroad and at the Farmers Bank at Fulton for all those who live east of the M. & O.

Don't be the last to put in your order. This week over 2,000 setting eggs were ordered. For further information see or call the County Agent at No. 163, Hickman.

As near as the Tennessee legislature came to passing "blue" laws was to pass a blue sky law and let it go at that.

Harding announces that Charles E. Hughes will be secretary of state, which is tantamount to saying that Charles E. Hughes will be secretary of state. And the appointment gives further impetus to the idea that, after all, Mr. Harding is going to be president.

Sure there's a difference between "a league of nations" and "an association of nations." The two front words are spelled and pronounced different. Quite a gulf that.

We wonder if the present generation will produce a superman who will be able to figure out income tax, according to the way the cubist originator has it laid out.

A crew on an Italian ship rioted when given near-beer as a thirst alleviator. Which shows the great difference in the Latin and Anglo-Saxon temperaments. Near-beer to the latter causes nothing but silent, profane gloom.

J. Wes Morris has hit on a new way to keep weeds out of the onions, radishes, etc., as the gardening season draws near. He claims that a high board fence, say about five feet high, will keep out the tallest and peskiest weed that vexes the gardener.

SHOULD BE CELEBRATED.

D. B. Wilson's birthday will occur Saturday and he informs us that this will be the occasion of much celebration throughout this section. He believes that the stores should close on that day in his honor, in fact, at Wingo, his birthplace, he tells us, business ceases Friday evening in order that they may do him honor. Mr. Wilson is authority for the statement that a holiday will be declared all up and down the C. M. & G., although he has allowed the drilling at the oil well at Bondurant to continue provided they run their flag at half mast.

He says, by way of parenthesis, that although the well known George Washington was a great man, he can't compare with him, for the father of our country wouldn't even know how to crank a Ford now. Mr. Wilson has made arrangements for a smoker to his friends Saturday afternoon in order to fittingly celebrate the occasion and in addition has agreed to render a few of his favorite selections in a vocal way for entertainment of the huge crowd which is sure to gather.

SOUTH IS TURNING AGAINST CALOMEL

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Responsible for Change for the Better.

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

DRILL AGAIN AT BARDWELL

Word comes to us again by means of the Carlisle County News, published at Bardwell, that drilling has been resumed on the oil well at Bardwell. According to that publication the contract for the drilling was closed last Wednesday morning and drilling began the same afternoon.

The new men who have been placed in charge of the operations at the well are the Messrs. Wilford of Ballard county. They have spent several years at the oil game, their last drilling operations having been in the oil fields around Bowling Green.

The contract with the drillers states that they are to go down to a depth of 800 feet from the surface of the ground or until they strike a stratum of rock which has been found beneath on a former occasion.

It is thought that the rock is between 700 and 800 feet from the surface. For this work the Messrs. Wilford are to receive the sum of $250. If they reach the rock short of the 800 feet they will receive the $250. After reaching the rock and settling the casing on it, a new contract for further work will be made with them.

According to the News the board of directors of the well are very much elated over the prospect of finding oil, and while nothing of a definite nature is known yet, there are strong indications that there is a deposit of oil within 2,000 feet of the surface. Drilling will go steadily on now.

ENTERTAINS FOR SOCIETY.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season was the entertainment given to the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Church last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Johnston, the hostesses being Mesdames Jones, Barrett, Ledford, and W. A. Johnston. The decorations were suggestive of both St. Valentine and Washington's birthday, garlands of red hearts and hatchets, and miniature cherry trees being used effectively throughout the reception rooms. In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. E. Blow presided. Mrs. Randle conducted the devotional exercises, after which she gave a brief history of the organization, this being the 44th anniversary. Mrs. Randle was the only charter member present and the society expressed a sincere hope that she would be present at the golden anniversary.

An interesting program of music, followed by a reading, appropriate to the celebration, given by Miss Helen Tulloss, was enjoyed.

A report on the aprons, which had been distributed among the members, was given, the amount contributed being $103.01. This was also the occasion for the opening of the "capsules," and as each member responded to roll call, she told of many tokens of friendship and courtesies extended her by her unknown capsule. Then the recipient was requested to name the one to whom she thought she was indebted and failing to do so, the capsule made her identity.

At the conclusion of the program, an appetizing salad course, with coffee and mints were served.

Heart shaped valentines were presented each guest as a souvenir of an occasion that will long be remembered by those who had the pleasure of attending. The members present were: Mesdames Randle, Rankin, J. M. Reid, Roper, Sanger, Schlenker, Shaw, W. J. Spradlin, Tulloss, Thompson, West, Voorhees, Briggs, Amberg, Baltzer, Barnes, Barrett, Barry, Blow, Brooks, W. T. Bondurant, Buck, Burrus, D. M. IN MEMORIAM.

J. M. Harkey was born September 15, 1840, in Pennsylvania, and died in Hickman, Ky., February 12, 1921. Having been blessed to live four score years, we look back upon a life well spent. He professed faith in Christ at an early age, and lived a devoted life to his Master, until called to the presence of Him whom he loved best to serve.

No worthy cause ever passed him by without his support and aid. He was truly the friend of the poor. He leaves a wife, seven children and a host of neighbors to mourn his loss. We grieve not as those without hope. The day before he fell asleep he told the minister, "I have been rejoicing all day." Such a beautiful testimony, such a comfort to his loved ones, rejoicing even at the very threshold of death. Like the great Apostle, Mr. Harkey could say, "I've fought a good fight, I've kept the faith." So he only ceased from his labors and crossed over to labor in the vineyard of the Lord.

He lived in Hickman for 24 years and was an exceedingly active man even in his last years, and often said he would like to be remembered by what he had done.

Fading away, like the stars of the morning.

Losing their light in the glorious sun.

So let me steal away gently and lovingly

Only remembered by what I have done.

My name and my place will not be forgotten.

Only my life race be run.

So let me pass away peacefully, silently,

Only remembered by what I have done.

A Friend.

THOUGHT GABRIEL HAD MADE HIS APPEARANCE.

A young man with a big bass horn came very near demoralizing several citizens a few miles from town several nights ago. It was about 11:30 o'clock at night, according to the statement of a citizen who lives in the neighborhood. It was a dreary night, the rain was falling in windy gusts, distant thunder was reverberating through the elements, an occasional flash of lightning gave vividness to the scene. A young man going home from band practice carrying his bass horn was practicing the chromatic scales as he wended his way along the lonely highway. The shrill, deep tones of his instrument reached the ears of several citizens and they at once determined that the angel Gabriel had appeared in accordance with a prophecy that stands undisputed. According to the reports received by the News a number of people—not one of two or three—all good citizens, got out of bed and began to prepare for the end of all things earthly. Gradually, perhaps, the voice of the musician's horn died away in the distance, and the people, looking about them and perceiving nothing of an unusual nature, heaved a sigh of relief and returned to their domiciles.—Clarke County News.

Prominent Hog Raiser Says Prices Charged Are Unwarranted—Makes His Own Hog Food, With Better Results.

"That he is all through paying fancy prices for stock foods and hog remedies and that he is raising some of the best hogs ever placed on the market," was the statement made recently by E. H. Beckstead, well known hog raiser and authority on live stock.

Mr. Beckstead's hogs are the envy of his neighbors, and have topped the market for several years in Iowa. He states that for years he bought high priced hog foods and hog remedies, but that he is all through paying extravagant prices for what he can make himself. He states that what the hogs need are minerals, and tells the secret of his wonderful success by explaining that he takes about five pounds of ordinary mineraline (which is pure concentrated minerals and cost only a couple of dollars) and mixes same with enough bran or filler to make a hundred pounds. All hogs, and especially brood sows require minerals, as they keep them free from worms, and in the pink of condition, and are essential to the hog's growth and a well balanced ration. This inexpensive mixture placed in a sheltered box where the hogs can get at it as they need it, will produce far better results than any high priced so called stock foods.

Send two dollars to The Mineraline Chemical Co., 1638 North Wells St., Chicago, Ill., and they will forward you by prepaid parcel post enough mineraline to make a full hundred pounds.—(Adv.) 35-4

Mrs. R. B. Johnson delightfully entertained at four tables of Rook Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 in honor of Mrs. Milton Moore of Jackson, Tenn. Candy was served during the games and at the close frozen salad and angel food cake was enjoyed. Those that had the pleasure of being present were: Mesdames Cne Threlkeld, E. C. Johnson, S. D. Stenbridge, M. M. Tulloss, W. H. Baltzer, E. B. Prather, R. E. Blow, J. M. Calvin, A. K. Mitchell, J. R. Brooks, J. W. Roney, B. Mitchell, J. A. Thompson and Miss S. Eaker.

In the case of B. G. Hale, Sr., vs. Martin Berry in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky the verdict was awarded the former. The dispute concerned the length of time a building had been rented by Mr. Berry from Mr. Hale. This case was tried first in the Quarterly Court, then in the Circuit Court and was then appealed with the above result.

Commander of Oregon Department of Legion, Has Deserved Title of "Fighting Parson."

Rev. William S. Gilbert, commander of the Oregon department of the American Legion, is a fighting chaplain who has administered to the spiritual wants of Oregon troops in the Spanish-American war, the Philippine insurrection, during their service on the Mexican border, and for 17 months in France with the A. E. F. His military career started 26 years ago, when he became chaplain in the Oregon National Guard. During the World War he was chaplain of the One Hundred and Sixty-second Infantry, Forty-first division and First army corps. He received the Croix de Guerre.

The "fighting parson" has held a number of pastorates in the state of Oregon, and was for three years president of Philomath college. He was recently appointed regent of Oregon State university by the governor of that state.

CHOOSE AIR MAN COMMANDER

Former Balloon Pilot, Lawyer, Heads Nebraska Department of the American Legion.

Nebraska members of the American Legion have elected Robert G. Simmons, a former balloon pilot, as department commander. Mr. Simmons is now an attorney in Scottsbluff, Neb.

The former pilot entered the air service October 23, 1917, and was licensed as a spherical balloon pilot by the A. E. F. Club of America in February, 1918, and commissioned as a second lieutenant in the air service in March, 1918. For some time he was an instructor in courts-martial and then was in command of the Sixty-third, Eighty-third and Seventy-fourth balloon companies at Fort Omaha. He was commissioned a first lieutenant in June, 1918.

Mr. Simmons is a graduate of the law college of the University of Nebraska. He served for one term as county attorney.

GOOD SHOWING IN SERVICE

Commander of Nevada Department of the Legion Rose From Private to First Lieutenant.

T. L. Withers, commander of the Nevada department of the American Legion, rose from the rank of private in the National Guard to that of first lieutenant during his military career, which was spent in various organizations of the Coast Artillery corps.

Educated at Thatcher Preparatory school, Nordhoff, Cal., the University of Nevada, California and Virginia, Mr. Withers acted as instructor in mathematics and chemistry for some time and then entered the practice of law at Reno, Nev. He served as chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call in 1917 and chairman of the home service section, American Red Cross, Reno, Nev., and was active in organizing the Nevada department of the American Legion.

Mother

Give Sick, Bilious Child
"California Fig Syrup"

"California Syrup of Figs" is the best "laxative physic" to give to a sick, feverish child who is bilious or constipated. Directions for babies and children on bottle. They love its fruity taste. Beware! Say "California" or you may not get the genuine recommended by physicians for over thirty years. Don't risk injuring your child's tender stomach, liver and bowels by accepting an imitation fig syrup. Insist upon "California."

A Great Difference.

"What's the difference whether we say 'A League of Nations' or 'The League of Nations?'"
"Charley, dear," protested young Mrs. Torkins, "I'm surprised at you. Suppose I were to ask you what difference it made whether we said 'A baby,' or 'The baby.'"

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

BEST HOUSES FOR CHICKENS

Several Plans and Arrangements Between Two Extremes Which May Suit Conditions.

In the manner of housing fowls there are two systems widely different in their extremes. At one extreme is the colony plan, which consists in placing small houses for small flocks far enough apart to obviate the necessity of fences, thus giving free range with but little mingling of the different flocks. At the other extreme we have the continuous house. This kind of house consists of a series of separate pens, under one roof, opening directly into a hallway in the rear, or having doors between the pens without the hallway, or opening into a hallway and also into one another. There are several plans and arrangements between these two extremes which may be built to suit varying conditions.

The advantages of the colony plan, according to poultry specialists in the Colony Houses Allow Flocks Free Range.

United States department of agriculture, are, first, small flocks on free range; second, no expense for fencing; third, there is less need for scrupulous attention to cleanliness and providing regular supplies of animal and vegetable feed during summer months. This plan, however, has the following disadvantages: First, extra cost of labor in caring for fowls in stormy weather, when it will often be difficult to get around to feed and care for the fowls regularly; second, houses built on the colony plan, if built as well, cost more than a continuous house of the same capacity, for partitions, which may be constructed largely of wire netting, are much cheaper than two end walls; third, the colony plan allows only about 100 birds to the acre, while the continuous-house system, with suitable yards, allows 400 to 500 birds to the acre.

J. Stahl, Judge of Fulton County, values same at $25.00, wherefore, it is ordered that this notice be recorded by the County Court Clerk in a book kept for that purpose and said Clerk is directed to furnish an Attest Copy to the Hickman Courier for publication, and to post one on the Court House door.

French Peasant and Machine

Introducing the French peasant to the great value of machinery in tillage and is probably America's best contribution to the work of reconstruction. The holdings of land often cover but a few acres, and the peasant has found that the wheel hoe, for example, will do the work of six men and, on large farms, that the tractor will plow more land than six horses. This is a revelation, a discovery of astonishing moment to him, writes Herbert S. Houston in the World's Work. And he has formed hundreds of co-operative societies to buy and operate tractors. He has claimed the wheel hoe for his own, and wants to see its tribe increased.

WAIL IS AN OLD ONE

It is interesting to learn from a papyrus in the museum of the University of Pennsylvania, by which institution many important archeological finds have been made in the old world, that the high cost of living and excessive freight rates were issued at least 1,800 years ago, and it is a peculiar coincidence that the complaint arose in Theadelphia, a name closely allied to that of Philadelphia, which, like other American cities, has been wrestling with the cost of food and the rates on anthracite coal.

It seems as if there is nothing new under the sun; that the same issues prevail, and that the same struggle is being waged.

However, it seems certain that we ourselves are much better off than the fellahs of Egypt in the apostolic age, or even than the small landed proprietors, who had to pay as much freight "as the traffic would bear" for transportation on the Nile.

We get a glimpse of life under the Ptolemies in Egypt, when the country was drained to furnish Rome with food. It is an amazing thing that in the Fayoum district, which is a little pocket at the westward of the Nile, flimsy records on papyrus should have been preserved to this day. This is only possible in a land of perpetual dryness. Egypt has thrived without rain through ten millenniums, because the necessary water comes not from the skies, but along the Nile from the center of Africa.

Eight centuries may seem a long time to us, but at the time the complaint of freight rates was mentioned there had been at least 5,000 years of recorded history in Egypt, and undoubtedly many millenniums which have left no record.

The poor fellahs, the actual cultivator of the soil, comprised a sort of patient animal who had become inured to oppression and greed and who never had the slightest opportunity for self-development until within the period embracing the last 30 years, when the British government set him on his feet and gave him not only freedom from lashings by the courbash, from compulsory labor on the ditches, from extra taxation, but permitted him to accumulate a little something on his own account and to become more than a tool of the officials.—Detroit Sunday News.

KEEP BROOD SOWS IN WINTER

Animals Must Be Properly Fed in Order to Farrow Large Number of Healthy Pigs.

During the winter the brood sows should be maintained as cheaply as possible, but at the same time they must be properly fed in order to farrow a large number of healthy, well-grown pigs in the spring. Best results are obtained when sufficient food is given to produce daily gains on the sows of one-half or three-fourths of a pound. To do this the grain fed must be limited, and diluted with some roughage, for unless the ration has sufficient bulk, the sows will become constipated and hungry, due to the undisturbed condition of the digestive tract. Legume hays are the chief roughage available at this season, and their use will cheapen the cost of feeding.

Either alfalfa, clover, soy-bean or cow-pea hay makes an excellent roughage, and when fed, little or no high-priced protein concentrate is needed to balance the corn. Bright leafy alfalfa hay gives the best results of any of these roughages. Alfalfa meal is simply the best grade of alfalfa hay chopped into a meal. Clover hay contains almost as much nourishment as alfalfa hay, and soy-bean hay, cut and cured when the beans are almost ripe, is a very nutritious feed. Cow-pea hay should be cut when the first peas are ripening and consequently does not have as high food value as soy-bean hay. Great care must be exercised in curing soy-bean and cow-pea hay, for the stalks are very heavy and succulent and unless thoroughly dried are apt to mold. Under no condition should a brood sow be fed upon any roughage which is not bright, nutritious and free from smut or mold. She does not relish or thrive on such inferior feed. It is very apt to cause severe digestive troubles, and may lead to the loss of her litter.

WINTER ATTENTION TO EWES

Success or Failure of Lamb Crop Next Spring Depends on Care Given Breeding Flock.

The success or failure of the lamb crop next spring will depend to a large extent upon the care given the breeding flock during the winter. In order to secure active, well-developed lambs, a large percentage of which are twins, it is absolutely necessary to have the ewes in a thrifty condition at mating time, and conditions of feeding and management during the winter months must be such that the flock will be maintained in good flesh, strong and vigorous.

GRADE IS IMPROVED ANIMAL

Strictly Speaking It Is One That Has One Purebred Parent, the Other Being Mixture.

Strictly speaking, the grade is an animal that has one purebred parent, the other being a mixture. The term grade is sometimes applied to an animal that is from improved ancestry whether or not it has one purebred parent. However, not every animal that is not purebred is a grade. The animal with inferior mixed blood lines is strictly a scrub.

WAY TO AVOID HOG CHOLERA

Prevent Exposure of Susceptible Animals to the Germ Which Causes the Disease.

To avoid hog cholera: First, avoid exposure of susceptible hogs to the germ which causes the disease; second, hogs when exposed to hog cholera should at least be injected with anti-hog-cholera serum, which will protect them through the period of exposure; third, produce permanent immunity in the hogs by administering virus at the same time protective serum is injected.

HIGHER PRICES FOR HORSES

Animals for Breeding and Farm Work Have Advanced Rapidly Within Past Six Months.

Prices on horses for farm work and breeding have advanced rapidly within the past six months and the fact that only about 10 per cent of the mares in the United States are in foal and not more than 10 per cent of the yearlings we should have are here, indicates that prices are due to go higher than we have ever known them to be.

SIT DOWN A MINUTE AND THINK

Size Up Your Condition. Look at the Facts Squarely.

IT PAYS TO HAVE GOOD HEALTH
Most Illnesses are Prevented by a Good Supply of Rich, Red Blood Take Pepto-Mangan, the Red Blood Builder

Either you are in good health or you are not. There's no half way. You may think nothing of being a little run down. It may not worry you if you look pale. You may think you'll be all right tomorrow or next day. But will you?

Certain it is when you do not feel just right, you are not right. There is probably something the matter with your blood. And while you can get around and do your work you are leaving yourself open to any of the diseases that are always waiting to take possession of run down people.

When you are pale and easily tired, when you cannot enjoy your meals, when you lose enthusiasm, your blood needs attention.

Take Pepto-Mangan for awhile. It is a great tonic. It will build up your resistance to disease, and you will soon feel stronger. The little red corpuscles are fighters. They battle with disease germs and win out when there are enough of them. Keep your system well supplied. Then you will keep well and you will enjoy life.

But be certain you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for it by the full name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan." Some people take it in tablet form. It is so convenient. The liquid and the tablets have the same medicinal value. Look for the name "Gude's" on the package. —Adv.

The heaviest snow of the season, and the heaviest for several seasons past, fell here Saturday. Owing to the high wind which accompanied the snow, great drifts were formed, and it was hard to tell the exact depth of the precipitation, which was variously estimated at from nine to twelve inches on the level. Traffic was rendered well nigh impossible not only on the roads leading into Hickman, but even on the streets of the city itself, on account of the drifting. The only damage reported to property here was to the building of the Kentucky Light & Power Co., whose roof gave way under the snow which had piled upon it.

Oxfords in high and low heels, black or brown, see them in our window. Only $3.95 and $4.50 a pair.—Dobsons.
